

One Day National Conference Report

On

Coalition Politics and Emerging Trends in India

28th September, 2012

The Department of Political Science, University College of Arts, Tumkur University, Tumkur has organized one day National Conference “Coalition Politics and Emerging Trends in India” on 28th September, 2012 was held at Sir M. Visveswaraya Auditorium, University College of Science, Tumkur University.

Inauguration

The conference was inaugurated by Honorary Professor of Centre for Political and Social Research Dr. S. T. Ramesh; Prof. M. G. Krishnan, Bangalore University, Bangalore welcomed by Dr. Joy Nerella. The conference was started with invocation song and welcoming the guests in the conference. The proceedings of the conference were released by Prof. N. Laxmikantha; S. T. Ramesh & Dr. S. Govardhana Naidu.

Prof. S. T. Ramesh; Prof. M. G. Krishnan; Prof. Hemalatha Jayarj; Prof. N. Laxmikantha; Dr. M. Jayaramu & Mr. Shripadkulkarni inaugurating the conference by lighting the Lamp

Prof. S. T. Ramesh delivering the Inaugural Address at the National Conference on Coalition Politics and Emerging Trends in India

The key note address was delivered by Dr. S. T. Ramesh and he stressed his speech on coalition government's stability at the Centre and State. Prof. M. G. Krishnan delivered his key note address by highlighting the examples of coalition governments in other states of West Bengal and Kerala as examples and role models for stable coalition government even in Karnataka state. Conference Organising Secretary Mr. Shripadkulkarni revealed the importance of the topic of the conference and for selecting the conference theme for fruitful successful coalition governments at the centre and state.

After the inauguration there were two lead lectures on different aspects of the conference's main theme. The lead lectures were delivered by Dr. Govardhana Naidu, Assistant Professor, Kadapa; and the second lead lecture was delivered by Dr. B. Ramesh, Associate Professor, Department of Studies and Research in Social Work, Tumkur University, Tumkur. The lead lectures were followed by the question hour and the floor was open for discussion with the students and delegates who have arrived from the different parts of the country and state.

There was a Technical Session-I from 12:15 noon to 1:00 PM; which was chaired by Dr. Joy Nerella; Associate Professor, University College of Arts and Rapporteur Dr. Mahalinga has taken over the session for paper presentation. In this technical session there were total nine paper presenters on different themes and sub-themes of the conference. This session was also followed by questions hour and thrown open for discussion. The delegates have presented the papers on various aspects of coalition's government and administration.

Mr. Shripadkulkarni; Dr. M. Jayaramu; Prof. N. Laxmikantha; Prof. S. T. Ramesh; Prof. M. G. Krishnan; Prof. Hemalatha Jayarj & Dr. Govardhana Naidu, Releasing the Conference Proceedings

After the lunch break there is another technical session started from 2:00PM to 3:00PM. This Session was chaired by Sri. Hariprasad, Associate Professor, Department of History, University College of Arts, and Sri. Subrahmanya Sharma was the Rapporteur for this session. This session was prolonged with power point presentation and total ten papers were presented in this session on various areas of the conference theme.

The Third Technical Session was started at 3:00PM and this session was chaired by Mr. C. M. Ravi, Assistant Professor, University College of Arts, and Mr. Mohan Prakash was the Rapporteur for this session and there was spot paper presentation in this session by students from Tumkur University and other universities in Karnataka. Overall there was fifteen paper presentations in this session.

The Conference was concluded with valedictory session by delivering conference report by organizing secretary and concluded the conference by distributing the certificates.